BC Book Club!

Book of the Month 20% Off!
This month's book is:

Essentially Candles

by Dr. Robert McDaniel

FOOD FOR THOUGHT:

Well done is better than well said. - Benjamin Franklin

TIP OF THE MONTH:

In excel, I keep a running inventory of all fragrances. Where they were bought, cost and how much in stock. When used, I subtract them off the inventory. When, it's time to order I print a list to see what's needed. This is something new I've started because I have been known to buy what is not need and not what is needed. I also, keep a running inventory of candles I have in stock, different sizes with retail prices. This help when needing to know how much in retail prices you have in stock. I keep a log as to what candles I have in different shops, that way I know what inventory I have in the shops. But you need to remember to take off items sold or used. Hope this helps!
