COMPANY NEWS:

Due to a large increase in cost, our Angel Type fragrance oil was discontinued. We did have requests from many customers at BC South to carry it even at the higher price, so we have made it available at BCS in 16 oz bottles only. If there is enough interest, we may begin to stock it at BC North again in the future. But for now you can still get it at BCS. We have also had to discontinue Witches Brew due to a large price increase. Unfortunately since it's a seasonal fragrance, it's not a popular seller and we can no longer carry it. We appreciate your understanding!

TIP OF THE MONTH:

I like to add my own "signature" to my CP works of art! Simply take your soap stamp and dip the tip into your mica powder, then lightly tap off the excess. Then stamp your soap as usual. This just adds a shimmery signature to your soap that makes it stand out from all the others, and wow! If you do outdoor shows, be sure to put the soap where the sun shines off that mica and everyone stops to look at your iridescent art!!!!
