TIP OF THE MONTH:

Grubby Wax Ornaments

Pour three lbs. of scented, dyed pillar wax into a cookie sheet. Allow to harden to the point where you can easily cut shapes with Christmas cookie cutters. Use a straw to make a hole in the top of each for hanging with ribbon or metallic cord. (I use hearts scented cinnamon buns, stars scented jingleberry and gingerbread men scented deep fried ice cream.) Remove shapes from the pan. Reheat the scrap wax left in the pan. Let it cool to the point of whipping. Dip the ornaments in the whipped wax to grubby them. Tie a bow of homespun across the middle and one through the hole at the top for hanging. Display these on a Christmas tree at shows. These ornaments sell very well for me!
